TOO MUCH TALK

Started Feds—The Ungranted Wagging of Tongues Has Been Mighty Expensive To Sport of All Kinds

(Louisville Herald.)

Charles W. Murphy, head of the Chicago "Cubs," may go down in sporting history as the author of the most costly phrase ever coined. His remark: "I don't deal with messenger boys," already has cost organized baseball a fortune.

The story of that phrase is interesting. There were in Chicago two young hustling business men, both of whom had acquired wealth rapidly and both of whom were baseball fans. They were the two Charlies—Weegham and Walker.

When Murphy summarily "fired" Frank Chance, chiefly to reduce expenses, the two Charlies were indignant. They admired Chance and wanted to keep him at the head of the Chicago club. They, with some others, hit upon a plan of buying the Chicago club, putting Chance in charge and disposing of Murphy. They and their friends sent Ed Westlake, a well-known Chicago newspaper man, with a check for $100,000 to offer Murphy $1,000,000 for the Chicago Club. Westlake attempted to open negotiations and Murphy, already angered by criticism, turned upon him with his hot shot about messenger boys.

The reply to their offer angered the men involved in the deal and they waited their opportunity. When the situation ripened Weegham and Walker took control, promoted the Federal League, and Murphy is commencing to realize that if a soft answer turns away wrath a hard one may do the same—with reverse results.

One sharp shaft of sarcasm made Jack Johnson champion of the world and overthrew Jim Jeffries. Billy Delaney did not like Jeff's marriage. ... made a caustic remark about Mrs. Jeffries. The fighter's wife heard of it Delaney was driven from the Jeffries camp.

Out of revenge he turned to Johnson. Those on the inside always will think that, with Delaney behind him instead of behind his foe, Jeffries would have won at Reno. Some of his camp followers declare he was whipped the moment he heard Delaney was to second the negro.

Another costly remark was that of Charles Comisky, of the White Sox. One morning President Johnson, of the American League, sent Comisky a magnificent black bass that he had caught. Half an hour later he sent Comisky notice suspending Jimmy Callahan for three days. Comisky was without a left belder and was fighting for the pennant.

"What does Johnson want me to do?" he asked bitterly. "Play that bass in leftfield?"

Johnson heard the remark. The result was a feud that almost broke up the American League.

Farmers

Have you ever tried our way of borrowing money to pay for a farm?

You, of course, know that most farms are sold for one-third cash and the balance of the payment is represented by lien notes due in one and two years. You also know that there are times when it is impossible to pay these notes when they become due.

Our specialty is lending money on good farms for LONG PERIODS. Wouldn't you rather have five years to pay the balance than two years?

Any one expecting to buy farm this March will do well to come in and consult us about getting the money.

We have been giving satisfactory service for 24 years.

ELECTRIC SIGNS!

The distinguishing air of quality which a first-class Electric Sign gives to a store is the element which gives a sign its greatest value as an advertising medium and investment. The impression it makes is good. It blazes forth to the public that there is business enterprise, merchandise and methods up-to-date. It affects the entire atmosphere of the business district. The stranger says, "It is a live town," and publishes it abroad. It is the Sign of the Times.
